

Spring Wildflower Day

Saturday, April 25, 2009

10am-3pm Seeing Nature Through New Eyes

Drawing wildflowers is something everyone can do, with a little help from special guest Jean Jamsa. Get comfortable with an easy drawing technique. Create a beautiful and personal booklet. Experience nature in a whole new way. This workshop will relax you down to your bones, and is fun for people of all ages, so come by yourself or bring the whole family. A $5/person donation will help cover materials. Bring a sack lunch or eat lunch at the Inn. Pre-registration is available: 765-597-2654, bcummings@dnr.IN.gov, or stop by the nature center. The workshop begins in the nature center, and then immerses you in the beauty of Turkey Run

10:30am Medicinal Wildflowers of the Park

Enjoy a 45-minute program with full-color slides and live plants. Guest Karen Staub will share the beauty and medicinal nature of these wild natives. Nature Center.

11:30am Attract Wildlife To Your Backyard

Let a naturalist help you create a landscaping plan for home that wild animals won't be able to resist. Free 30-minute program at the nature center.

2pm Planetarium Star Show

Reservations are recommended for a 40-minute tour of the night sky. See constellations, planets, red giants, nebulae and more! Nature Center.

3pm What's Blooming?

Take a walk with a naturalist to experience the fragrant beauty of the spring woods. This 1-hour moderate hike begins at the nature center.

7:30pm A New Perspective On Richard Lieber

Join us for a very special evening as special guest Ed Timm shares the life and times of Col. Richard Lieber, father of Indiana State Parks. This 1-hour program highlights Lieber's association with fine art and historic homes, and shows how his early life experiences shaped the forward-thinking conservationist he became. Don't miss these beautiful photographs gathered from various Indiana museums and libraries that accompany this compelling story of a truly great man. Coffee and desserts to follow. Turkey Run Inn.